In Israel this Summer?

Take the path less travelled...

Want to do something a little different when you are in Israel this Summer? Take a day trip with JNF into the heart of the Negev and see how our work is helping to turn the desert green and pioneer the Zionist mission in the 21st century.

Monday 30th July, Tuesday 14th August or Wednesday 29th August

Itinerary (Subject to change)

8.00am Transport will depart from Netanya, Tel Aviv and Jerusalem.

9.00am Yad Binyamin

10.30am-12.00pm Visit to Ben Gurion's Home and Museum, Ben Gurion's grave site at Ben Gurion University campus. An opportunity to learn more about Ben Gurion's vision and plan for the Negev that underpins the JNF mission and work today

12.30pm-2.00pm Arrive in Yeruchum and enjoy a light lunch at the JNF Family Centre and Club which provides a focal point for the community. This centre has been built in partnership with the Ayalim Association – a group of young, Zionist students who are encouraged to live in the development towns of the Negev.

2.45pm-3.45pm Visit Tel Sheva, a Bedouin town bordering Beersheva with a population of 13,000. We will meet the inspirational founders of a school helping Bedouin children with special needs. We will have an opportunity to learn more about the Bedouin community and see how a minority group are supported by the State of Israel.

4.30pm-5.30pm Meeting with a Negev farmer to learn of the challenges of farming in remote areas of southern Israel together with representatives of Hashomer HaChadash - a grassroots organisation dedicated to protecting the land of Israel through volunteers, helping farmers and ranchers in the Negev deal with the theft of their livestock.

7.00pm Coaches arrive back at Yad Binjamin
